

FINANCIAL LITERACY COALITION CENTRAL TEXAS

Helping Others to Improve
Financial Decision Making

Let Us Provide Classes
For You!

Are you part of...

Then become a partner/site coordinator...

- a community or a neighborhood?
- a workplace interested in individual education?
- an educational program for youth?
- a faith-based group or community organization?
- for classes in financial literacy
- for exhibits and information on financial literacy

Benefits

- individuals empowered to make sound financial decisions
- a resource of trained volunteers to teach financial literacy classes
- networking with an established coalition for financial literacy education
- letters of support for those seeking grant funds for education in financial literacy
- essential service to your member/client base

What We Teach

For Adults

- Budgeting
- Savings
- Managing savings accounts
- Building credit
- Using credit wisely
- Home ownership

For Youth we offer interactive classes with activities that bring to life the process of financial decision-making:

- Evaluate choices for needs and wants
- Savings/checking accounts
- Credit
- Develop a monthly spending plan
- Balance monthly finances

Vision: To be recognized as a trusted, unbiased, and credible source of personal financial education.

Mission: To foster community prosperity by enhancing the knowledge and skills Central Texans need for improved financial decision-making.

Community Partners

- Blackland Housing Development Center
- Grove Place Apartments
- American Youthworks, Inc.
- AVANCE Austin
- El Buen Samaritano

Financial Partners

- Frost Bank
- SP Consumer Action/American Express
- Texas Jumpstart
- University Federal Credit Union

Contact Us Today

For a partnership agreement form, visit the FLCCT website at:

<http://www.flcct.org> or contact Jane Parker at: jparker@aq.tamu.edu